

A world-class facility for continuing professional development in the centre of London

Practical information on the Waterloo Campus and its surrounding area

Catering in Franklin-Wilkins Building

Hot lunches are served daily 12.00-14.30 on the ground floor, on the left as you enter the building after the security desk and down a few steps. There is also a selection of facilities – three outlets, all of which serve tea, coffee and cold drinks, two of them on the ground floor and one on the first floor. There will be a selection of sandwiches and snacks available. The first floor cafe includes a full time bar. A retail shop is located on the ground floor which sells a wide variety of snacks and drinks including salad boxes.
